

ASPIRE CAREERLINK

THE COMPETITIVE EDGE

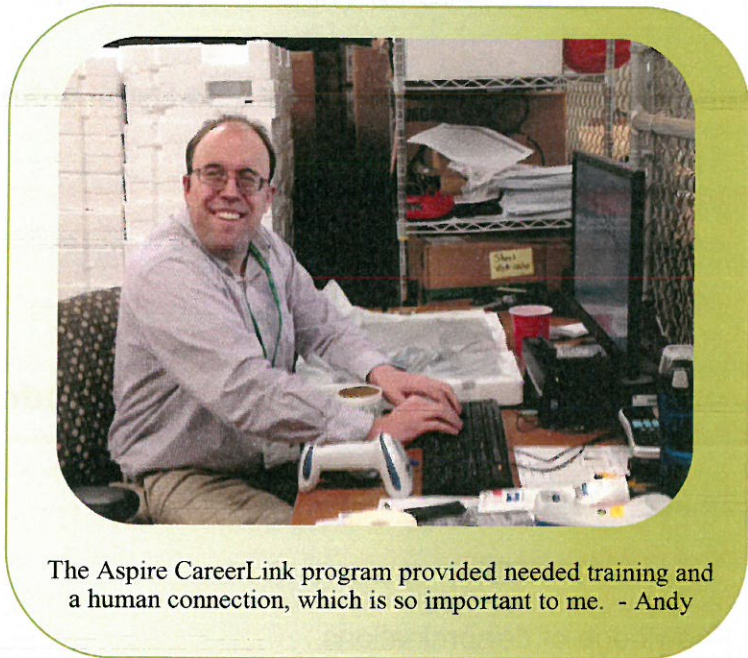

An innovative career training center with a proven track record, for people with disabilities

Experience:

- 1 Hands-on simulated training site
- 2 Training focus in retail or warehousing
- 3 Work etiquette skill building
- 4 Access to employers
- 5 Post training support available

www.aspirechicago.com

Employers

The Aspire CareerLink program provided needed training and a human connection, which is so important to me. - Andy

After fifteen years and a change in management, Andy, who has Asperger's found himself unemployed. Then Aspire CareerLink changed his outlook on life and gave him renewed hope through the training program. Andy is gainfully employed as an IT Technician at Rush University Medical Center.

Over 90% of graduates went on to secure employment!

Future Possibilities Await!

CINTAS
READY FOR THE WORKDAY™

CBRE

Jewel-Osco

Office DEPOT
OfficeMax

 RUSH UNIVERSITY
MEDICAL CENTER

Contact, Karen Phillips
Phone: 708-547-3560 x3571
kphillips@aspirechicago.com

aspire
Together, We're Better.

Eligibility Requirements

Adults 18+

Documentation of disability status will be required

Able to provide own transportation to and from training site(s)

Independent in daily living skills

General academic skills needed for both Retail and Warehouse focus

Reading skills

Ability to comprehend scanner displays

Match numbers

Specific Skills Needed

Retail

Money skills

Knowledge of denominations and values

Ability to provide customer service

Warehouse

Basic math skills

Physical Stamina Needs

Ability to stand on concrete surfaces for 5 hours at a time

Ability to move quickly

Able to do on-going lifting. Bending and stooping

Environment can be very hot in summer and colder in winter