LAW ENFORCEMENT OFFICERS CARRY THE TORCH FOR SPECIAL OLYMPICS ILLINOIS

NORMAL, Ill. – Beginning June 2nd, law enforcement throughout Illinois will carry the “Flame of Hope” nearly 1,500 miles, running through hundreds of communities via 23 different legs (routes). The Flame of Hope will ultimately be delivered to Bloomington-Normal for the Opening Ceremony of the Special Olympics Illinois Summer Games on June 7.

On Friday, June 7, legs of the run, from all over the state will converge in Normal. That evening, during the Opening Ceremony of the Special Olympics Illinois State Summer Games, officers from every leg of the Torch Run will enter Illinois State University’s Hancock Stadium with torches lit to, therefore, hand off the “Flame of Hope” to Special Olympics athletes. When the cauldron is lit and the games declared open, more than 4,000 athletes will continue three days of competition and celebration.

The Law Enforcement Torch Run® is the single largest year-round fundraising vehicle benefiting Special Olympics Illinois. The annual intrastate relay and its various fundraising projects have two goals: to raise money and to gain awareness for the athletes who participate in Special Olympics Illinois. The Law Enforcement Torch Run® has raised more than $51 million over 33 years while increasing awareness of Special Olympics Illinois athletes and their accomplishments.
