

Hey, Special Olympics Basketball Players! Learn from the Pro's!

On Sunday July 8, the Chicago Sky in partnership with University of Chicago Medicine will host their first annual #ChicagoFit Health and Fitness Festival.

As part of the event this year, the Chicago Sky will be attempting to break a World Record for the largest multi-venue basketball clinic of 4,000 participants, including Special Olympics basketball players. The current record holder is Kevin Durant of the Golden Warriors and the NBA. The Sky hope to inspire people living in the Chicagoland area from ages 8 – 80 to be more conscious about their health this summer and show the world what the women of the WNBA can accomplish!

They are providing bus transportation to the first 30 groups that sign up!
The buses can hold about 40-50 people.
Lyft will also be providing discounted transportation.

Clinic Check-in: 12:30pm-2:00pm

Clinic: 2:00pm-2:30pm

Complimentary family fitness and health fair: 2:30pm-6:00pm

After the world record breaking event, the Sky will host our annual Health and Fitness festival, featuring 40 of the leading health and wellness brands in the Chicagoland area with prizes and giveaways.

Please use this link to sign up for the event: <http://sky.wnba.com/chicagofit/>