Spring Games Volunteer
Job Descriptions

Bailey Brenner, Director - Region G

Rev. 2/13/19
WELCOME VOLUNTEERS!

Special Olympics Illinois would not exist today—could not have been created—without the time, energy, education, and commitment of the more than 25,000 volunteers in Illinois and more than a million worldwide! Special Olympics Illinois relies on people aged 10 on up to help in every aspect of the program—both at the area and state level.

The annual Region G Spring Games is the largest area event that takes place every spring and without the help of 190 volunteers it wouldn’t be possible to host. The 2018 Region G Spring Games will be held Sunday, April 29 at EastSide Centre in East Peoria. Over 300 athletes from Ford, Iroquois, Livingston, Marshall, McLean, Peoria, Tazewell and Woodford Counties will compete for a chance to win a gold medal and the opportunity to advance to the State Summer Games.

Age to Volunteer
All day of volunteers must be at least 10-years of age in order to volunteer at any Special Olympics Illinois event.

What to Expect
Volunteers are expected to arrive at the time that they registered for online and check in at the volunteer table.

At registration volunteers must present a valid photo ID. Volunteers will be given a T-shirt their final job assignment, and told where to report for further instruction.

Event Status Hotline:
In case of inclement weather the status of the event will be posted online at www.soill.org/region and volunteers may also call 309-888-2000 ext. 245

Track Event Volunteers

Events that take place on the track include: 50, 100, 200, 400, 800 & 1500 Meter Runs; 100, 400 & 800 Meter Walks; 10, 25 & 50 Meter assisted events, 25, 30, 100 & 200 Meter non-motorized wheelchair events; and the 30 & 50 Meter Motorized Wheelchair events.

Bullpen (10-12)
Responsible for all activities in assigned bullpen area including:
1. Responsible for seating athletes in chairs in the bullpen according to the assigned lane. It is the coach’s responsibility to have athletes in the designated bullpen area at the assigned time. Do not hold up a race if an athlete is not in the bullpen when called.
2. Escort athletes from the bullpen chairs to the appropriate lane, and stay with them until the race starts. It is important to stay with the athletes until the race starts to insure that nobody wanders into a wrong lane or walks away. The bullpen volunteers will then go immediately back to the bullpen to get another group.

The efficiency of the meet will depend DIRECTLY upon the bullpens ability to get and keep athletes in their proper bullpen chairs and get them to the appropriate lanes in a timely manner.
1. Use the heat sheet provided to announce the race being staged. Call the athlete’s name and race over the bullhorn. Call for runners no more than 3 times. For example: “This is the third and final call for Female Senior Division 1 (FSR 01) Mary Jones #536.”

2. Assign a volunteer to each row of chairs, which designates a heat. As athletes report, seat each one by heat and by lane number.

Clerk
Place athletes in appropriate lane at the starting line, then notify starter when race is ready to begin.

Starter
When the Head Timer signals (with a flag), the Starter will then begin the race with the following commands: “Take your mark”, “Set”, raise arm and fire starting pistol. Starter will fire second shot to designate a false start, then will restart the race.

Head Timer
Responsible for:
1. Making sure there are adequate timers, judges, and stopwatches, and all are ready before each heat
2. Explaining jobs and rules to timers and finish judges

Head timer will signal the starter (with a flag) to start the race. The Starter blows a whistle to indicate to the Head Timer that the message was received, and all are ready to go.

Timer- 6 to 8
Each timer will be assigned a “place”, (1st, 2nd, 3rd, etc.) by the Head Timer. Timers are to time athletes from the start of the race until the athlete crosses the finishes line. Start the watch when you see smoke from the starting gun. Times are then reported to the Recorder. All Timers will stand off the track. Times will be reported as follows:

_______ _______ : _______ _______.
minutes seconds tenths hundredths

Lane Monitor-6 to 8
Stand behind restraining line, which is 20 feet behind the finish line. As athletes cross the line, Lane Monitors keep athletes in their assigned lane. Meanwhile, the Recorder will record the times and give the heat sheet to the Awards Escorts. Lane Monitors give their athletes to the runners as well, who will take them to the awards area. *Lane Monitors are there to congratulate, give praise and encouragement.

Awards Escorts- 6 to 8
After each race, you are to take the heat sheet and all the athletes from that heat to the awards area. Give the heat sheet to the awards volunteer. Seat athletes by awards volunteers and return quickly to the track for your next group.

Course Official- 4 to 8
 Watches for fouls of interference or advantage. If foul is observed, raises red flag and moves into the lane of the athlete who is disqualified (after all athletes have passed); if no infraction is observed, raises white flag after athletes have passed by. Course Official reports disqualifications to the Recorder.
