Gautam Bhegal is a current partner for the Chicago Fire All-Star Team. He is from San Diego, California, 21 years old, and just graduated from DePaul University. Gautam has been involved with Special Olympics for a year. To him, this is particularly important because he has a family member with an intellectual disability. His volunteerism and dedication to Special Olympics can be attributed to his family. Special Olympics has impacted his life by learning how the organization can make a difference on and off the field. An accomplishment for Gautam is making this team. Outside of Special Olympics, he lifts 8 days a week.
