

Special Olympics
Illinois

Chicago Fire All-Star Team Athlete / Partner / Coach Bio

Name: Mark Jerabok

Age: 22

Hometown: Naperville, IL

Role for Team (Athlete, Partner, Coach): Athlete

Local Agency: Chicago Fire (Special Olympics)

Years Involved in Special Olympics: 6 years

Other Special Olympics Sports Involved In: Basketball, Track and Field

Background (School, Job): College of DuPage, Jewel Osco

Mark Jerabok is a current athlete on the Chicago Fire All-Star Team. He is from Naperville, Illinois, 22 years old, and currently attending College of DuPage. Mark has been involved with Special Olympics for 6 years. Mark also participates in basketball and track and field. To Mark, Special Olympics has impacted his life by allowing him to play for the Chicago Fire, meet new people, and get together as a team. Being on the Chicago Fire All-Star Team is important to him because it has given him more knowledge on living a healthy and active lifestyle. An accomplishment for Mark is achieving his goals with the Chicago Fire, Knights of Columbus, and soccer challenge. Outside of Special Olympics, he is involved with more soccer and works at Jewel Osco.

