

Intellectual Property

Special Olympics Illinois is the only entity in Illinois that is accredited by Special Olympics, Inc. and authorized by license to use the Special Olympics™ trademark and logo. Any other entity that identifies itself as a “Special Olympics” organization in Illinois is not accredited by Special Olympics, Inc. Special Olympics Illinois also is the only entity in Illinois that is authorized by license to use the Polar Plunge® trademark and logo, and any use of this mark by any other entity in the state of Illinois is not lawful.

Furthermore, this website and the content herein are copyrighted by Special Olympics Illinois unless otherwise specified. Certain photographs and other materials are used by permission from their respective authors or publishers. No portion of this website or any content herein may be used, redistributed or republished without written permission from Special Olympics Illinois.

Questions? Please contact Special Olympics Illinois at cwinston@soill.org